We determined the polarization angle of a 1/4-scaled model of the LiteBIRD Low Frequency Telescope. The measurements were well explained by a simple Jones calculus, and the statistical error of the fitting curve was less than 1 arcsecond.